Technical requirements

Does your site work on iPads and Tablets?
Yes. Our site works well on iPads and tablets as well as desktops. It is not recommended to design pages on a phone due to the small screen size.

Will I need to download any additional software to use your program?
No, complete functionality is included online. You do not need to have Flash. You will need to have a PDF reader to see a proof.

Is there a limit to the number of photos I can upload?
Currently there is no limit except for the time you want to spend uploading images or managing a large number of images online. We highly recommend you narrow your image selections prior to uploading. This will save you a great deal of time for uploading and sorting your images online.

Ordering information

Do you accept purchase orders?
Purchase orders can be accepted for verified organizations. Your original contract will need to include verifiable school or organization information. Once a credit check has been completed, your project will be marked for acceptance of a P.O. and invoicing, net 20 days, for the balance of your program. Please contact customer service with any questions.

If I do not finish a project, will I be charged for it?
No. As long as your project has not been submitted as an order, no charges are incurred. If an order has been placed and cancellation is requested, you will be responsible for any actual production work completed to the date you cancelled the order.

Do I have to commit to a minimum quantity?
Great news! There is no minimum quantity. Your price is determined only by the style of binding you select and the number of pages you want in your book. When you're ready to print your book, order only what you need. The price per book will never change unless you change the number of pages or elect to add other options.

Can I order more books at a later date?
Yes, because we have no minimum order you may order more books at a later date. You can even order just one yearbook.

Can I add more pages once I get started?
Yes, the project leader has the authority to add or delete pages. This will affect the price of your yearbook.

Do I have a deadline to meet?
No. You set your own personal deadline based on when you would like to receive your yearbook.
